NEW ZEALAND IMMIGRATION

Additional Information Form

for a visa application to New Zealand

Using this form

This form is for the collection of additional information about you to better enable Immigration New Zealand to make a decision on your application for a visa.

The form is divided into eight sections, A-H. You may need to provide additional documents to support your statements, as indicated in the relevant sections. Where possible, original documents (especially military service/exemption documents) must be submitted, along with certified translations where the originals are not written in English.

Please answer each question with as much detail as possible. If you do not provide sufficient information in your answers we may request clarification, which will delay the processing of your application. If you are not able to fit your answers into the space provided, complete your answers on an additional page and attach it to this form.

Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007

Under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 it is an offence to provide immigration advice without being licensed or exempt. If your immigration adviser is not licensed when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return your application.

For more information and to view the register of licensed advisers, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz or email info@iaa.govt.nz.

Lawyers provide immigration advice and are exempt from licensing under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007.
