Transit Visa Application

Who should use this form?

Individuals or families who wish to apply for transit visas should use this form. You need to apply for a transit visa if you are intending to transit New Zealand and you are:

- not from a visa free country, and
- not from a transit visa waiver country, and
- not travelling to or from Australia.

To confirm whether you need to apply for a transit visa, see www.immigration.govt.nz.

What should you send with your application?

You must send the passport (the original document) of each person included in the application with your completed and signed form. You must also provide two passport-size photographs of each person, evidence of your travel arrangements, and a statement of the purpose of your visit to your destination country.

When you have completed the form, please use the checklist at the end to make sure you have sent all the documents and information we need.

We will process your application only when we receive all the information and documents we need. If you do not send all the required information, we will refuse to accept or decline your application.

Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007

Under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 it is an offence to provide immigration advice without being licensed or exempt. If your immigration adviser is not licensed when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will refuse to accept or decline your application.

For more information and to view the register of licensed advisers, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz or email info@iaa.govt.nz.

Lawyers provide immigration advice and are exempt from licensing under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007. For more information and to view the register of immigration lawyers, go to the New Zealand Law Society website www.lawsociety.org.nz.

When filling in this form, please print clearly using CAPITAL LETTERS.

Important note: A transit visa holder may not apply for entry permission or any class or type of visa while in New Zealand during the transit period.

Section G Declaration by applicant

All of the people included in this application must complete this section.

I have provided true and correct answers to the questions in this form.

I understand that if false or misleading information is submitted, my application may be declined without further warning.

I will inform Immigration New Zealand of any relevant fact or change of circumstances (including a change in my employment or partnership status) that may affect the decision on my application for a visa.

I understand that if I have received immigration advice from an immigration adviser and if that immigration adviser is not licensed under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will refuse to accept or decline my application.

I authorise Immigration New Zealand to make any necessary enquiries about information on this form and/or accompanying documentation. I authorise any agency, whether in New Zealand or overseas, including but not limited to border or immigration agencies, education providers, financial institutions, foreign embassies, government authorities, health care providers, police or other law enforcement agencies, that holds information (including personal information) related to information on this application form and/or accompanying documentation, to disclose that information to Immigration New Zealand.

Section I

This section must be completed and signed by the applicant's immigration adviser, or by any person who has assisted the applicant by providing immigration advice, explaining, translating, or recording information on the form for the applicant. If the applicant does not have an immigration adviser, and no one helped the applicant to fill in this form, this section does not have to be completed.

If you are unlicensed when you should be licensed under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007, Immigration New Zealand will refuse to accept or decline your client's application. It is an offence to provide immigration advice without holding a licence.

For more information, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz, or email info@iaa.govt.nz or write to them at PO Box 6222, Wellesley Street, Auckland 1141, New Zealand.

I understand that after the applicant has signed this form it is an offence for me to change or add further information, or change or add any documents attached to the form, without making a statement identifying what information or material has been changed, added or attached and by whom. If I make these changes or additions, I must state on the form what they were, who made them and the reason they were made.

I understand that the maximum penalty for this offence is a fine of up to NZ$100,000 and/or a term of imprisonment of up to seven years.

I certify that the applicant asked me to help them complete this form and any additional forms. I certify that the applicant agreed that the information provided was correct before signing the declaration.

☐ I have assisted the applicant as an interpreter/translator

☐ I have assisted the applicant with recording information on the form

☐ I have assisted the applicant in another way. Please specify |

☐ I have provided immigration advice (as defined in the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007) and my details in Section H: Immigration adviser's details are correct.

About the information you provide

Deciding whether you are eligible for a visa

Immigration New Zealand collects the information about you on this form to decide whether you are eligible for a transit visa.

Collecting the information is authorised by the Immigration Act 2009 and the Immigration Regulations made under that Act. You do not have to provide the information, but if you do not we are likely to decline your application.

Deciding whether you are eligible to board a flight to New Zealand

The information we collect may also be used to determine whether you are allowed to board a flight to New Zealand. We will not share your personal information with airline check-in agents; however, we will send a boarding message to the airline check-in agent based on the information you have provided in this form.

Immigration New Zealand may also share the information you have provided with other government agencies that are entitled to it by law, or with other agencies.

You are able to ask for the information we hold about you and have any of it corrected if you think it is necessary. The address of Immigration New Zealand is PO Box 1473, Wellington 6140, New Zealand. Do not send your application to this address.

Other documents we may need

Sometimes we may ask for additional documents or information so that we can consider it with this application.
